PRESIDENT'S CORNER

2020 The year that will go down in infamy! No need to dwell on the reasons why. Aren't we glad it's over?! I hope you and your families were able to ring in the new year in a unique and special way!
Happy New Year!

2021, for me, and many others, signifies HOPE.

Hope is important because it can make the present moment less difficult to bear. If we believe that tomorrow will be better, we can bear a hardship today. – Buddhist Monk, Thich Nhat Hanh

Regarding the pandemic, and the devastation it is leaving behind, hope is exactly what will get us through the coming months. Just knowing there is light at the end of the tunnel gives us the motivation to move forward with a lighter heart.

"I feel like I didn't just get a vaccine, I got a shot of hope," one doctor quoted in the New York Times said.

Yes, we now have a vaccine! But the vaccine is not going to be an immediate solution to current problems. We likely have many more months of social distancing and mask-wearing. Hope is what the vaccine is offering!

We are all feeling hope! Hope that Covid-19 finally falls quickly into the "has been" list. Hope that the vaccine will be taken by most. Hope that people will get back to work, that schools will open, and that separated families and friends will finally hug! Hope that the stress of the past year fades to relief.

Hope that financial recovery will be possible to those most in need, and that the new normal will be better than the old normal. It's all enough to make us look to the near future with the positivity and motivation we need to face the challenges!

I am grateful for the spunk our members have shown throughout the fall. You attended our programs with the library, as well as book group and game night, in large numbers, and with a can-do attitude. As our AAUW programs continue, January 21 is the first in 2021. Our speaker, Veronique Pluviose, from the office of Virginia US Representative Bobby Scott, will update us on AAUW's largest area of focus: the gender pay gap. Ms. Pluviose will talk about the Paycheck Fairness Act and preview what that upcoming Congress will look like. Join us by registering HERE.

Let's continue to focus on the hope and positivity that will keep us moving forward toward that proverbial light at the end of the tunnel! Let's hope to share a hug in 2021!

Patsy

DECEMBER 5 ZOOM HOLIDAY GET TOGETHER

In spite of a crazy, disrupted year, we ended it on a high note! Our Holiday Zoom Get-together was a complex adventure in planning! We are grateful to Paula Lettice who hosted the Zoom event December 5. She also arranged for the delicious lunches from Cedar Knoll, which members picked up before Zooming, while at the same time donating food to United Community (UC). Members donated 100 pounds of food! Thanks so much to each of you who donated, and to Cathy Krebs who collected and delivered the food for us!

Paula

We are grateful to Susan Watkins (Mississippi), Mary Wall (California), and Ronnie Gunnerson (Chester, MD) for joining us on Zoom from afar. And Anne Simpson deserves a nod for driving to pick up lunch at Cedar Knoll, and returning to her home in Ft. Washington to Zoom with us. That took an hour for her!

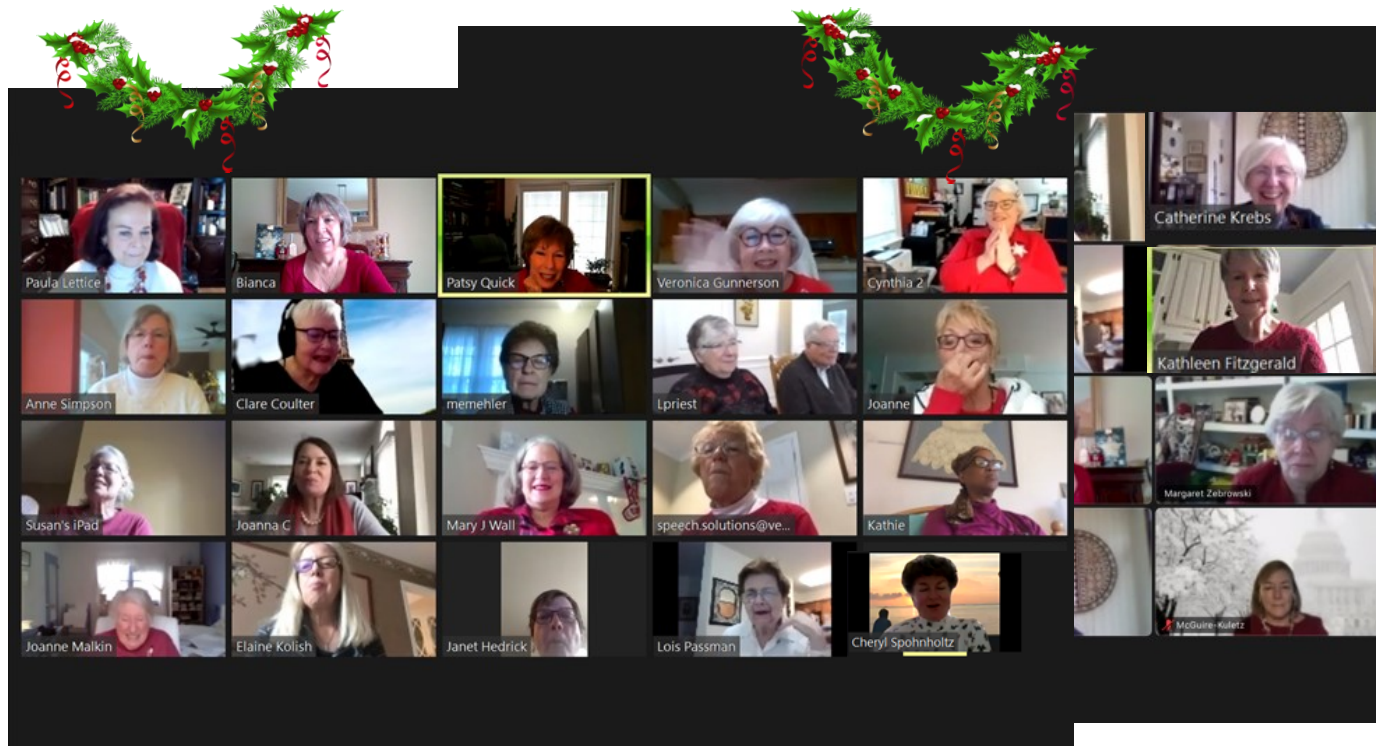

Patsy

Our December raffle basket earned $840 for AAUW Funds. Many thanks to Paula Lettice who “dressed” the basket, sold the raffle tickets, and drew the winning ticket! (Louise Priest was the winner!) Paula also handled the technology of a couple of planned sing-alongs and a flash mob video! Patsy gave several toasts! Thanks to Cynthia Jacobus, who made our story-telling in three categories such a success! Prizes for great stories went to Mary Wall, Janet Hedrick, and Patsy Quick. Best Dressed Award went to Ronnie Gunnerson. Ronnie wore the Christmas shirt her daughter made for her when she was twelve!

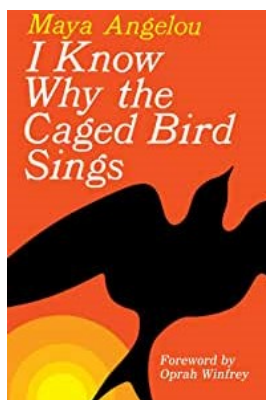

And to top it off, our members were generous in giving to AAUW Funds online as part of our holiday promotion. Thanks to all of you who donated!

Was the complex adventure worth it? Yes! We had many wonderful, positive responses including, “It really felt like a party!!” Thank you all for participating!

The screen shots are compliments of Elaine Kolish and Bianca Daugherty.
